

GOVERNMENT REFERENCE WEB SITES

International Cooperation (IC) Office (US Department of War) 	The mission of the International Cooperation (IC) Office is to strengthen key international partnerships through cooperative Acquisition, Sustainment and Industrial Base initiatives to improve interoperability and sharpen the warfighter's technological edge.	https://www.businessdefense.gov/icie/ic/index.html
Defense Security Agency 	DSCA is for Building Partner Capacity (BPC) Programs that use BPC Letters of Offer and Acceptance (LOAs)	https://samm.dsca.mil/chapter/chapter-15
Defense Security Agency Legacy 	Building Partner Capacity (BPC) Programs that use BPC Letters of Offer and Acceptance (LOAs) (also known as BPC cases) and training grants developed in the Defense Security Assistance Management System (DSAMS) BPC Module (DSAMS-BPC) for Title 10 BPC appropriations beginning with Fiscal Year (FY) 2025, and for FY 2024 Counter-Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) Train and Equip Fund (CTEF)	https://samm.dsca.mil/chapter/chapter-15-legacy
Bureau of Industry and Security U.S. Department of Commerce 	Provides guidance for determining whether a license is required for export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) transactions involving items subject to the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), 15 CFR parts 730-774, (or, in limited situations, certain U.S. persons' activities that may be unrelated to items subject to the EAR) and a link to the Simplified Network Application Process Redesign (SNAP-R) portal to apply for licenses or request a commodity classification from BIS.	https://www.bis.gov/licensing